

A MAY FESTIVAL FOR CHARITY.
GIVEN IN AID OF THE HEBREW ORPHAN ASYLUM AT THE TUXEDO.

The May festival of the Hebrew Sheltering Guardian Society Orphan Asylum was held last night in the Tuxedo, Fifty-ninth, and Madison-ave. The festival was given under the auspices of the Young Ladies and Gentlemen's Circle of the Auxiliary Society, and was a decided success. The attendance was large and a considerable sum of money was realized. The hall was beautifully decorated with flowers, plants and bunting, and the booths presented an extremely pretty appearance.

The young women who had charge of the booths were as follows:

Flowers—Mrs. Schwerin, Miss M. Michell, Miss H. Worms, Miss M. Nahon, Miss B. Webley, Miss N. Hartshorne, Miss N. Boniface, Miss S. Stahl, Miss C. Anspach, Miss A. Drechsler, Miss L. Silver, Miss H. Sylvester, Miss A. Reba, Miss M. Selomick, Miss A. Schenck, Miss N. Iloway, Miss R. Davidson, and Miss B. Kiersch.

Candy—Miss E. Park, Miss E. Bernbaum, Miss H. Hall, Miss L. Worms, Miss S. Turk, Miss H. Goldber, Miss E. Langstaedt, Miss H. Lazarus, Miss K. Frank, Miss B. Folhart, Miss E. Keller, Miss R. Rich, Miss E. Simonson, Miss M. Draps, Miss G. Goldsmith, Miss E. Hermann, Miss J. Birmingham, Miss A. Rosenfeld, Miss S. Salomon, Miss E. Scherzer, Miss M. Schutman, Miss E. Meyer, Miss S. Hess, Miss M. Levy, Miss C. Beck and Miss Ruth Lemondaine—Mrs. Harris, Miss L. Keller, Miss L. Goodman, Miss E. Thorman, Miss E. Josephine, Miss F. Warwicker, Miss E. Freese, Miss E. Roseblatt, Miss H. Plant, Miss E. Lazarus, Miss P. Cohn, Miss D. Isaacs, Miss S. Warsawer, Miss E. Baker, Miss S. Stein, Miss M. Lewin, Miss L. De Stehni, Miss E. Sanger.

The Entertainment Committee was J. E. Rich, chairman; Miss Emma Bernbaum, Miss Maid Lewin, Miss E. Sanger, Miss Ray Weigel, Robert L. Tuck, and Misses Anger.

The officers of the Auxiliary Society are: Mrs. L. M. Schwerin, president; Mrs. Harris, vice-president; Miss A. Selomick, treasurer, and Miss Sarah Swan, secretary.

A musical programme was well rendered during the evening, under the direction of Professor Joseph Lewis.

Much amusement was created by the contest for a beautiful piece of feminine headgear given by Miss Tuxedo. That was to be given to the young woman receiving the greatest number of votes. Up to a late hour the counting of the votes had not been completed.

BURIED AT HER INDIANA HOME.

THE RELATIVES OF MRS. MARY D. HILL THINK SHE WAS MURDERED AND ROBBED.

Columbus, May 23 (Special).—The body of Mary D. Hill, who committed suicide at the Colonade Hotel, New-York City, arrived here to-day, and was readily identified by the father and relatives beyond all question. The body was buried in the plot of the city cemetery this afternoon. The large number of diamonds she was known to possess was not found among the effects in her trunks. The family here believe she was murdered and raped. Standard Oil Co., Messrs. John C. and John C. Hill, the dead woman's father, said:

"I kill the man who attempts to cremate my daughter's body, or disturb it after burial."

Judge Hill and wife, of Indianapolis, parents of the dead woman's husband, attended the funeral. Both Edgar Hill and his wife were born and grew up in this city.

The jewelry which Mrs. Hill left at the Colonade Hotel is now in the care of the public administrator of this city, and certain legal processes will have to be gone through with before it can be given over to the family of the dead woman. There is no foundation for any suspicion of murder and robbery.
